

Southeast Iowa Early Childhood Summit presents:

“Accepting and Valuing Diversity”

and

“Poverty Simulation”

Saturday, April 13, 2019

8:00 – 3:15

Iowa Wesleyan University

Mt Pleasant, IA

All activities at the Student Activity Center

7:00 – 8:00

Registration, Breakfast,
Scholastic Book Fair

8:00 – 9:30

Accepting and Valuing Diversity Through
Song with Tom Pease

9:45 – 11:15

Diversity Tools for Everyday

11:15 – Noon

Buffet Lunch

Noon – 3:15

Poverty Simulation
Privilege Walk

Through song, movement and humor, Tom will help participants celebrate and enhance our similarities and differences. Tom will share practical ideas and tools to reinforce our children’s wondrous sense of fun, play, sense of community and sense of hope. Come to share ideas and to problem solve specific issues or topics used in your child care environment.

Lunch and Beverages provided! NO cost to attend
Approved Training Credit

Photocopy to register more than 1 person

Name: _____ Home: _____ Center: _____ Business Name: _____

Business Address: _____ City: _____ Zip: _____ County: _____

Contact Telephone: _____ E-mail Address: _____

Funded by: Community Partnerships for Protecting Children; Children First;
DHLW; Iowa, Jefferson, Keokuk Early Childhood Iowa; Quad County Decat; and Iowa Wesleyan University

Registration deadline: Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Mail completed registration form to:

Cheryl Flaatten, Community Action of Southeast Iowa

2850 Mt Pleasant St. #108, Burlington, IA 52601

Phone: 319-753-0193; Fax: 319-753-0687; or Scan & Email to: cheryl.flaatten@caofseia.org