Parents as Teachers (PAT)

Parents as Teachers promotes the optimal early development, learning and health of children by supporting and engaging parents and caregivers.

Parents as Teachers®

Parents as Teachers

builds strong communities, thriving families, and children who are healthy, safe and ready to learn by matching parents and caregivers with trained professionals who make regular personal visits.

Our Vision is that all children will develop, learn and grow to realize their full potential.

Parents as Teachers®

Parents as Teachers

is a free early learning program designed to provide guidance and support to families by offering:

- Personal in-home visits for families with children prenatal to five years old.
- Parent/child interactive and educational group connections.
- Periodic developmental screenings.
- Linkage to community resources.
- Support, encouragement and information.

Parents as Teachers Helps:

- Recognize your child's ever-changing abilities.
- Detect health and developmental issues.
- Increase your child's school readiness and success.
- Support strong families to provide a healthy, nurturing environment in which parents and children grow and develop together.
